NOTICE TO HUNTINGTON BEACH RESIDENTS
TEMPORARY STREET CLOSURE
SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2010
1:00 AM – 2:00 PM

On Sunday, February 7, 2010, the City of Huntington Beach will host the Surf City USA Marathon. This is the fourteenth year for the event, which includes a marathon, half-marathon, 5K run, children's run and fitness expo.

The 2010 event course will remain the same as last year with the closure of Pacific Coast Highway from Beach Blvd. to Warner Ave. PCH will be closed starting at 1:00 AM.

Portions of inland streets will also be closed including Seapoint St., Garfield Ave., Ellis Ave., Talbert Ave., Edwards St., Inlet Dr., Overlook Dr., Summit Dr., Varsity Dr., Central Park Dr., Goldenwest St. and areas of Central Park. It is estimated that these streets will be closed from approximately 6:00 AM until 9:30 AM. Although there will be access in and out of all neighborhoods throughout the event, you may experience some delays during that time. On the reverse side, you will find a course map.

The event organizer has worked closely with the Police and Fire Departments to ensure that emergency service to the community is not affected in any way. We sincerely hope that any inconvenience to residents and businesses will be minimal.

The following information is provided to help residents determine the easiest way to get in and out of their specific neighborhoods:

Overlook Dr. will be closed. Residents of the Bluffs should use the Edwards St. gate for both entrance and exit.

Seapoint St. will be closed in both directions from PCH to Palm Ave. There will be one lane open northbound on Seapoint from Palm Ave. to Summit Dr. that will allow access to local residents.

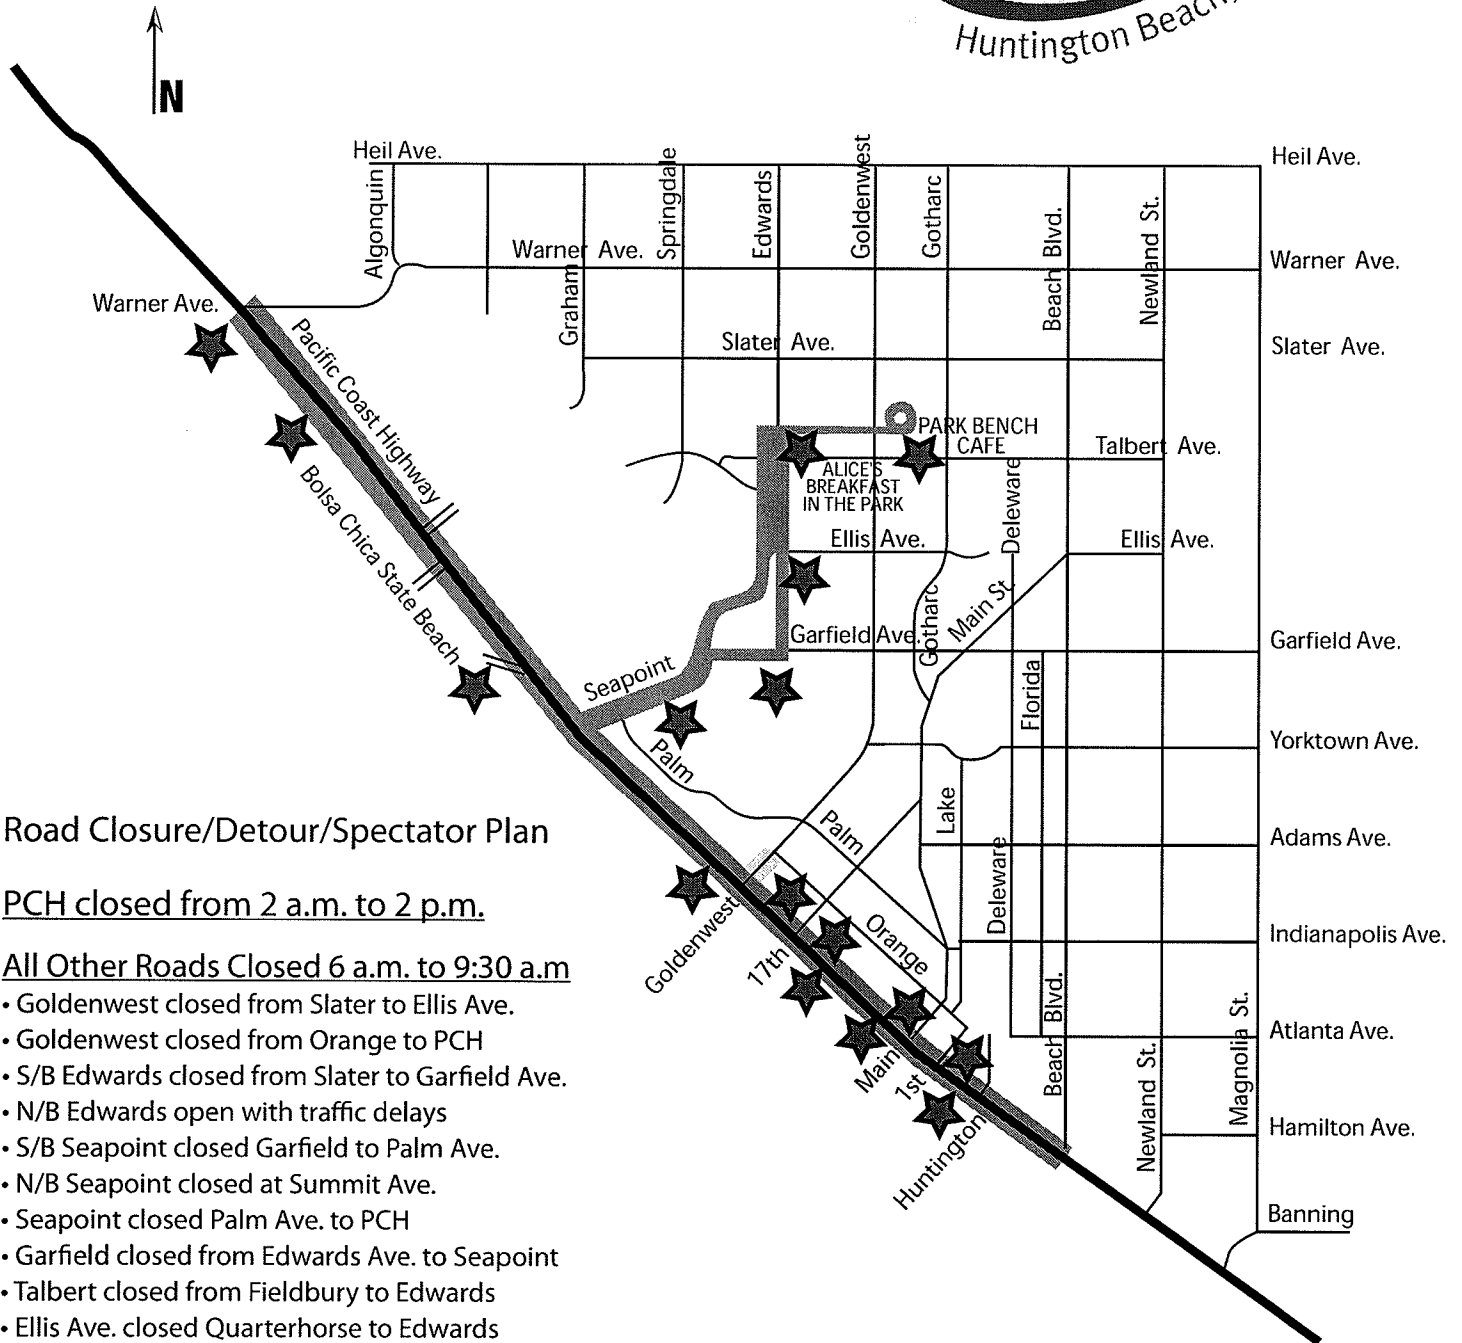

Edwards St. will be restricted to one lane northbound from Garfield Ave. to Ellis Ave. This will allow access for local residents.

Edwards St. will be closed in both directions from Ellis Ave. to Central Park Dr. Access will be made available to local residents adjacent to Central Park West.

The run will be going through Central Park. Breakfast in the Park and Park Bench Café will be open for business.

Goldenwest St. will be closed between Ellis Ave. and Slater Ave. and from Orange Ave. to PCH.
